

Portable Data Case

If portability is essential to your weighing system, look no further than Massloads Portable Data Case. This case houses an industry standard M2000 digital readout, a fast 1 1/2" roll printer, and high capacity battery all in a waterproof Pelican™ case!

This case has been described by many of our customers as 'the perfect case for portable weighing systems', how could hundreds of users be wrong?

"Weigh your load on the road!"

Specs at a Glance:

- 3 channel
- 1 RS-232 Serial Port
- 1 1/2" dot matrix roll
- Pelican 1600 series
- Watertight
- On/Off toggle switch
- 12VDC charging port (adapter included)

Specifications:

M2000 Digital Indicator
• 3 channel, NTEP approved

Battery

- 12V, 7.5 amp hour rechargeable battery commonly available at most electrical supply stores
- 8 hours of continuous operation on fully charged battery

Printer

- Impact dot matrix

- 1 1/2" tape, easy roll replacement from top

Connectors

- Channels connectors are industry standard amphenol type
- Serial connectors are DB9 style (9 pin female)
- Recharging port is a polarized male plug with slide cover when not in use

Switches

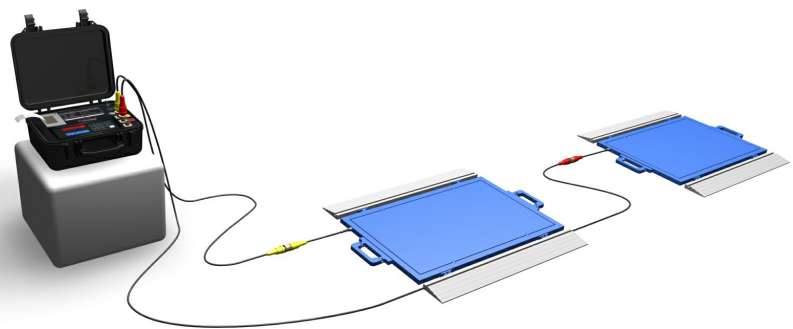

- Large toggle switch on/off/charge

Dimensions

- Weight: Approximately 15lbs
- Overall Size: 13 1/2" wide, 11 3/4" long, 6" high

Sealing

Closed: IP-66: totally protected from dust and from strong jets of water.
Open: IP-50: protected from dust but not from water.

Connect your computer to the Portable Data Case and turn your scale into a total portable data acquisition system! See our Link Software brochure for more information.

